President’s Message January 2010

Our Wonderful Winter Wonderland Lunch was a fitting end to another enjoyable and productive Probus year. Most of the Club was involved in one way or another with the preparation and smooth running of this event but the reigns were taken very competently by Lyn Hudgson. Many thanks and congratulations to our Snow Queen and all her helpers for a job well done. It will be a hard act to follow.

There were many individual group “break-ups” in the lead up to Christmas, four of which I was privileged to attend, and all of which went off with a bang. It is a very special time of the year for fun and friendship and, those of us who could stay the distance, came through it with a great feeling of well-being and only a few extra kilos!

Each year I remember an old boss of mine saying “there’s nothing as dead as Christmas on Boxing Day” and I always think how right he was. By the time you read this Message, the New Year celebrations will also be a thing of the past and we’ll be surging forward into the year 2010 and the second decade of the 21st Century.

We already have a very full calendar for 2010 and all we need is the energy and good health to enable us to participate in everything that has been planned. I look forward to travelling that path with you.

All the Best to you and yours for the New Year.

Following is the eighth clue to my second well-known Melburnian. If you think you know the answer at any stage, please put your answer and name in an envelope addressed to me in the Suggestion Box. Another bottle of wine for the first correct identification.

Clue No.8: I regularly get a good facelift.

Liz Turner

Secretary’s Report (Judy Baker)

Welcome to 2010

I hope you all enjoyed the festive season, and now looking forward to another year of fun and fellowship at our “Probus Club of Templestowe Valley”.

2010 Election of office Bearers

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) will be held on Monday 1 March, 2010 and the election of office bearers for 2010 will take place. Our Vice President Doug Hayne, will step up to President for 2010 in accordance with our rules, leaving the Vice President’s position vacant, this position has to be taken by one of our lady members. Ron McBain, Margaret McGregor and myself will be standing down from our positions on the committee as we have served our three-year stint. All positions on the committee are open for nomination and election if necessary. The positions are as follows:

- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Publicity/Newsletter
- Welfare and Membership
- Activities
- Speakers

If there is only one nomination for an office then acceptance by acclamation from the members present is all that is required. If there is more than one nomination for an office, then a ballot will be held and the nomination getting a majority vote will be declared as the officer for this year. Only those present at the AGM can vote if there is a quorum (33) of members present Voting is NOT compulsory and only one candidate for each office can be voted for – NO PREFERENTIAL VOTING.

Nomination forms for election of office bearers for 2010 are now available from the secretary. These nominations need to be completed and lodged with the Secretary by the end of the fellowship break at the February club meeting. Final nominations will be announced after the fellowship break and published in the March Newsletter.

Elections will be held at the March meeting on Monday 1 March, 2010 (This is the FIRST Monday in March).

I am pleased to report interest has been shown for vacant positions on the committee. If any member would like further information on any position on the committee please talk to Liz or any current member of the committee. Remember our club is only as good as the "Committee" leading us.

January Meeting

Our next meeting is on Monday, 11 January, 2010 at the "Ted Ajani Centre", Thompsons Road, Lower Templestowe, opposite Sunhill Road, Melway 32K7. Enter the hall from the front entrance. The hall will open at 9.00am for activity bookings. The meeting will commence at 9.45am.

Report on our end of year breakup

Thirty Two members and guests came to our breakup at Urban Retreat on Thursday 10th December.

The service and food was once again up to the very high standard of this restaurant with more than enough to eat. There was a lot of laughter, good conversation and quite a few bottles of wine consumed during the evening and it was nice to see everyone wearing something other than their golf attire.

Jokes galore after main course well delivered by John Wilson, Ian Gault, and Jeff Crosbie with a few golfing ones thrown in by me for good measure. Our evening concluded about 10.30pm with stomachs full and a small gift to take home.

My thanks to all the members, guests and their partners who came along and made this a very enjoyable time.

Newsletter Deadline (Doug Hayne)

For the February Newsletter the deadline is Sunday 31st January. Please carefully scrutinise any events you are involved with for correct dates and other information. Please do not hesitate to contact the Editor if there are any errors or omissions

Request for Tales of Travels

Many of our members have travelled both overseas and within Australia over the past few years and we thought it may be a good idea to provide a means of passing on your experiences and advice for other members contemplating a similar adventure.

There were three members' tales published in 2006. January, March and April Newsletters, which would be good models to work from. You will find the copies of these Newsletters on our web site.

Please keep your story brief and informative bearing in mind the philosophy:
 "If you write to inform and NOT to impress then you WILL impress."

So, if you have a tale to tell please send your story to the Editor by mail to our PO Box or email to:

Twenty Five Lessons From My Mother

1. My mother taught me TO APPRECIATE A JOB WELL DONE .
 "If you're going to kill each other, do it outside. I just finished cleaning."
2. My mother taught me RELIGION.
 "You'd better pray that will come out of the carpet."
3. My mother taught me about TIME TRAVEL .
 "If you don't straighten up, I'll knock you into the middle of next week!"
4. My mother taught me LOGIC.
 " Because I said so, that's why."
5. My mother taught me MORE LOGIC.
 "If you fall from that swing and break your neck, you're not going to the pictures."
6. My mother taught me FORESIGHT.
 "Make sure you wear clean underwear, in case you're in an accident."
7. My mother taught me IRONY
 "Keep crying, and I'll give you something to cry about."
8. My mother taught me about the science of OSMOSIS.
 "Shut your mouth and eat your supper."
9. My mother taught me about CONTORTIONISM. "Will you look at that dirt on the back of your neck!"
10. My mother taught me about STAMINA.
 "You'll sit there until all that spinach is gone."
11. My mother taught me about WEATHER.
 "This room of yours looks as if a tornado went through it."

12. My mother taught me about HYPOCRISY.
 "If I told you once, I've told you a million times. Don't exaggerate!"
13. My mother taught me the CIRCLE OF LIFE.
 "I brought you into this world, and I can take you out."
14. My mother taught me about BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION.
 "Stop acting like your father!"
15. My mother taught me about ENVY .
 "There are millions of less fortunate children in this world who don't have wonderful parents like you do."
16. My mother taught me about ANTICIPATION.
 "Just wait until we get home."
17. My mother taught me about RECEIVING .
 "You are going to get it when you get home!"
18. My mother taught me MEDICAL SCIENCE.
 "If you don't stop crossing your eyes, they are going to freeze that way."
19. My mother taught me ESP.
 "Put your sweater on; don't you think I know when you are cold?"
20. My mother taught me HUMOR.
 "When that lawn mower cuts off your toes, don't come running to me."
21. My mother taught me HOW TO BECOME AN ADULT .
 "If you don't eat your vegetables, you'll never grow up."
22. My mother taught me GENETICS.
 "You're just like your father."
23. My mother taught me about my ROOTS.
 "Shut that door behind you. Do you think you were born in a shed?"
24. My mother taught me WISDOM.
 "When you get to be my age, you'll understand."
25. And my favorite: My mother taught me about JUSTICE.
 "One day you'll have kids, and I hope they turn out just like you

When Insults Had Class

These glorious insults are from an era when cleverness with words was still valued, before a great portion of the English language got boiled down to 4-letter words, not to mention waving middle fingers.

- The exchange between Churchill & Lady Astor: She said, "If you were my husband I'd give you poison," and he said, "If you were my wife, I'd drink it."
- A member of Parliament to Disraeli: "Sir, you will either die on the gallows or of some unspeakable disease." "That depends, Sir," said Disraeli, "whether I embrace your policies or your mistress."
- "He had delusions of adequacy." - Walter Kerr
- "He has all the virtues I dislike and none of the vices I admire." - Winston Churchill
- "A modest little person, with much to be modest about." - Winston Churchill
- "I have never killed a man, but I have read many obituaries with great pleasure." - Clarence Darrow
- "He has never been known to use a word that might send a reader to the dictionary." - William Faulkner (about Ernest Hemingway).
- "Poor Faulkner. Does he really think big emotions come from big words?" - Ernest Hemingway (about William Faulkner)
- "Thank you for sending me a copy of your book; I'll waste no time reading it." - Moses Hadas
- "He can compress the most words into the smallest idea of any man I know." - Abraham Lincoln
- "I didn't attend the funeral, but I sent a nice letter saying I approved of it." - Mark Twain
- "He has no enemies, but is intensely disliked by his friends." - Oscar Wilde
- "I am enclosing two tickets to the first night of my new play; bring a friend... if you have one." - George Bernard Shaw to Winston Churchill
- "Cannot possibly attend first night, will attend second... if there is one." - Winston Churchill, in response.
- "I feel so miserable without you; it's almost like having you here." - Stephen Bishop
- "He is a self-made man and worships his creator." - John Bright
- "I've just learned about his illness. Let's hope it's nothing trivial." - Irvin S. Cobb
- "He is not only dull himself, he is the cause of dullness in others." - Samuel Johnson
- "He is simply a shiver looking for a spine to run up." - Paul Keating
- "There's nothing wrong with you that reincarnation won't cure." - Jack E. Leonard
- "He has the attention span of a lightning bolt." - Robert Redford
- "They never open their mouths without subtracting from the sum of human knowledge." - Thomas Brackett Reed
- "In order to avoid being called a flirt, she always yielded easily." - Charles, Count Talleyrand
- "He loves nature in spite of what it did to him." - Forrest Tucker
- "Why do you sit there looking like an envelope without any address on it?" - Mark Twain
- "His mother should have thrown him away and kept the stork" - Mae West
- "Some cause happiness wherever they go; others, whenever they go." - Oscar Wilde
- "He uses statistics as a drunken man uses lampposts... for support rather than illumination." - Andrew Lang (1844-1912)
- "He has Van Gogh's ear for music." - Billy Wilder
- "I've had a perfectly wonderful evening. But this wasn't it." Groucho Marx
